How did You Become a Financial Expert?

Money Attitudes from your childhood, from http://www.wife.org/moneyclubs/ Exploring your childhood memories of money... deeper understanding of yourself.

Describe, in one word the feeling you had about money as a child. Here are some examples:

Deprived, poor, lucky, rich, independent, smart, satisfied, ignorant, oblivious, uninterested, reward, controlled, worried, dependent...

Ask yourself, why did you choose that one word?

How is the way you handle money similar to your parents?

Could you talk about money with your parents when you were a child?

What was the most important message your parents sent to you about money?
